Andrew Moore Murder Remains Unsolved; Family Offering College Scholarship in His Memory

Release Date: April 24, 2009

San Diego County Crime Stoppers is joining forces with the San Diego Police Department's Homicide Unit and the Moore family to help identify and apprehend the suspect(s) responsible for the murder of Andrew Moore.

The crime occurred on September 8, 2000. Andrew Moore, a City College student, was murdered in his apartment on Eighth Avenue in San Diego. As part of the crime, his 1994 Suzuki Katana motorcycle was stolen. The motorcycle was recovered on October 17, 2000, in the 1100 block of 24th Street. San Diego Police Department homicide detectives have not yet identified the suspect(s) in this case and are asking for the community's assistance.

Every year Andrew's mother and father fly from Pennsylvania to San Diego to help pass out flyers in the community in an attempt to identify the person(s) responsible for the murder of their son. While Mr. and Mrs. Moore are in town, they will present The Andrew Tan Tai Moore Memorial Scholarship to a City College student. This year's scholarship presentation will be held on Andy's birthday, Saturday, April 25, at 11:30 a.m., at the El Prado restaurant in Balboa Park. The media are encouraged to attend the presentation. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will be available for media interviews at that time.

Anyone with information on the identity or location of the suspect(s) responsible for this case is asked to call the Crime Stoppers anonymous tip line at (888) 580-8477. Crime Stoppers is offering up to a $1,000 reward and the Moore family has offered a $5,000 reward to anyone with information that leads to the arrest of the suspect(s). The Governors office has offered a $50,000 reward to anyone with information that leads to the arrest and conviction of the suspect(s). Collect calls are accepted and callers may remain anonymous.

- The media are encouraged to attend the scholarship presentation at the El Prado restaurant in Balboa Park on Saturday, April 25th at 11:30 a.m.; the Moore family will be available for interviews at that time.*
- Media inquiries regarding Crime Stoppers should be directed to Sally Cox at (858) 603-9810.*

For information leading to an arrest, you could receive up to a $1,000 reward and remain anonymous. The qualification of any person(s) for the reward and the amount of the reward for any person(s) so qualifying will be determined by San Diego County Crime Stoppers, Inc. in its sole discretion. The amount of all rewards given shall not exceed $1,000. Information must be received on the tip line, (888) 580-8477.
